Human Resources

Job Announcement

POSITION TITLE  Reading Specialist

To provide leadership, coordination, collaboration, and innovation in reading curriculum and instruction.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Master’s degree (preferred) in reading, education or related area
- Experience with balanced literacy program
- Experience with literacy assessments
- Ability to analyze and use data to design, modify, and evaluate literacy curriculum, instruction, and assessment
- Three or more years of experience as a Reading Teacher

PERFORMANCE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Exhibits personal interest and enthusiasm for reading to support the teaching of literacy and encourage student reading.
- Spends a majority of time in classrooms and reading labs working directly with faculty and students in the area of literacy.
- Thoughtfully advocates for and supports all students with rich, deep and engaging literacy curriculum the teaching and learning of reading.
- Assists in implementing and monitoring of the QEP.
- Collects and maintains appropriate records of student progress and provides timely and accurate oral and written feedback to faculty and students.
- Uses a variety of data to evaluate abilities and disabilities of students and works independently and with classroom faculty in meeting needs of all students.
- Maintains an inventory of reading intervention instructional and professional materials.

Salary

Commensurate with Credentials and Experience